Our Journey

WHERE IT ALL BEGAN

It was the last week before convocation. Suman and Hari — two final-year students at IIT Delhi — were sitting in their hostel room, surrounded by packing boxes, old assignments and four years of memories they did not quite know how to carry home.

Hari picked up a plain white mug from his desk. "I purchased this mug on the first day at IIT Delhi and I have had chai in this mug for 7,00 mornings. I will carry it as a memory of IIT Delhi," he said quietly. "But there is nothing on it. No sign of 'IIT Delhi'. It is just... a mug." Said Suman and smile.

They laughed. Then stopped. Because they both felt it — that strange, hollow feeling of leaving a place that had completely changed them, with almost nothing physical to show for it.

"We had two of the most defining years of our lives here.
Why is there nothing to remember it by?"

— Hari Narayan

That night, they did not sleep. They talked about how every IIT, every IIM, every NIT — every college across India — shapes millions of students every year. Shapes how they think, how they dream, how they see the world. And yet, when those students leave, they carry almost nothing that says: I was here. This place made me.

Local print shops offered cheap, generic merchandise. There were no premium, purpose-built brands for institutional gifting. Nothing that felt worthy of a convocation ceremony at a premier institution. Nothing that made an alumnus's chest swell with pride.

That gap — that silence — became their mission.

THE FOUNDERS

Suman — Co-Founder

IIT Delhi, Alumnus

Grew up in a small town in Bihar. Getting into IIT was the proudest moment of his entire family's life. He never forgot that feeling — and built Campus Mania so that no student ever has to leave that feeling behind.

Hari

IIT Delhi, Alumnus

The quiet one with the eye for detail. Designed every product himself before a single vendor was involved. Believes great merchandise is not a luxury — it is a right that every institution in India deserves.

They graduated. They received the job offers. But they turned them down. Because they had unfinished business — a problem only they had truly felt, and only they were stubborn enough to fix.

They started with Rs. 1 lakh, a laptop, and a WhatsApp group of few college friends who agreed to be their first honest critics. Their first product was a simple coffee mug — engraved with the IIT Delhi crest, the batch year, and the words: We Were Here.

Forty-seven pre-orders came in within the first 48 hours — from batchmates alone.

WHAT WE DO

Today, Campus Mania is India's most dedicated institutional merchandise brand — designing and delivering premium custom-printed products for colleges, universities, government organisations and corporations across India.

T-shirts that carry a batch year. Bottles that carry a crest. Notebooks that carry a motto. Seminar kits that carry the identity of an institution. Mementos that carry a memory — forever.

We are not a print shop. We are not a gifting company. We are the people who understand what it means to belong somewhere — and we exist to give that belonging a physical form.

"Every college in India has a story worth telling. Every student deserves to wear that story with pride. That is why Campus Mania exists."

— Suman, Founder, Campus Mania
